PINK COAT RACE A FARCE.

ESSEX II. IS RESTRAINED TO LET HIS STABLEMATE WIN.

Billie Hibbs Runs Away from Other Youngsters in the Washington Nursery Stakes—Cold Weather Affects Attendance.

Washington, D. C., April 6.—Freezing weather with a snow storm at the end of the afternoon was served up at Benning today and kept the attendance down when one of the largest crowds of the meeting would have turned out under favorable conditions.

What promised to be the attraction, the Chevy Chase Hunt Steeplechase, a pink coat affair, was a farce of the rankest kind, owing to the declaration of Dion Kerr to win with Ardette. There were but three starters, Dion Kerr's entry, Essex II. and Ardette, being opposed by Ordessu. Essex II. was known to be many pounds the best of the trio, but Mr. Kerr believed that Ardette could beat Ordessu and declared to win with Ardette.

It was necessary for Mr. Taylor, who rode Essex II., to pull him all over the course to prevent his making a runaway race of it. After Ardette had Ordessu beaten in the stretch, Essex II. got the best of his rider and, coming with a rush, was fast catching his stable companion at the finish.

The race was probably the deathknell of the Chevy Chase Hunt Steeplechase, which has been a feature here for the last six years. The Southern Steeplechase carded for next Thursday, and which attracted pretty much the same field, has already been declared off, an open steeplechase having been substituted.

Billie Hibbs was an easy winner of the Washington Nursery, the two-year-old stake, worth $1,200 to the winner. He was ridden by L. Smith and this accounted for the liberal price about him. He made a runaway race of it. Woodcraft, the receding favorite, ran a disappointing race, just lasting to take third money.

Radtke was not at the track today, as he has not yet recovered from the sickness which forced him to decline some of his engagements yesterday. He is troubled with an attack of biliousness and his illness is not due to reducing as was reported. He will probably be all right by Monday. Miller will be back from New York tomorrow and finish out his engagements with William Garth, which covers this meeting.

In some respects Monday's card is about the best of the meeting, and with such speedy horses as Jack McKee, Wabash Queen, Jupiter; Awless; Beckon; Gossoun; Lord Bonnerges, Anna May, Golf Ball; Diamond Flush, Anna Smith, Cousin Kate; Turbulence, Cobmosa, Delphie; Heaslip, Oxford and Ormonde's Right in the entries, the racing is likely to be of the keenly-contested order.

PADDOCK SALE AT CITY PARK.

New Orleans, La., April 6.—These horses were sold by auction in the paddock before racing began at City Park today:

Bert Osra, ch. g. 5, by Albert—Bonnie Osra; J. Carroll	$250
Major Carpenter, ch. g. 6, by Russell—Morna; L. C. Houbre	170

Joe Davis, ch. g. 3, by Handcuff—Enterpe; Police Commissioners	140
Limited, ch. f. 3, by Reminder—Heart Breaker; D. Herang	115
Miss Royal; F. M. Pavey	115
Lacksley; Police Commissioners	100
St. Tammany, ch. g. 8, by St. Blaise—Seaweed; S. Perrin	100
Amberjack, ch. h. 5, by Henry of Navarre—Aurata; S. Perrin	90
Hop o' My Thumb, b. f. 3, by Ben Holladay—Doloroso; S. Perrin	85
Effie Gene; H. E. Wright	75
J. D. C., b. e. 3, by J. H. C.—Donella; S. Perrin	50

IMPROVEMENTS AT AQUEDUCT.

New York, April 6.—Many improvements have been made at Aqueduct since last year. The buildings have all been treated to a fresh coat of crimson paint, while the track itself has received a new top dressing. The track, by the way, finds more favor among the trainers of two-year-olds than any of the others because of the long stretch out of the chute.

CHINN'S EASTERN STRING.

Lexington, Ky., April 6.—Phil T. Chinn arrived here today. He will ship Shenandoah, Prefension, Savable, Senator Blackburn, Senator Paynter, Belk of Mayfair and Astoria Belle, now at Hot Springs, to Sheephead Bay tomorrow night.

LETCHER TAKES CHARGE OF TRACK.

Lexington, Ky., April 6.—W. R. Letcher took up his duties as secretary and general manager of the Kentucky Association today. Charles F. Price will be the presiding judge at the meeting, which will open April 27.

COOK TO RACE AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., April 6.—Fred Cook has changed his mind about shipping his horses to New York. He now says he will not go east until after the meeting at Churchill Downs and has ordered all of his horses shipped from Nashville to this city.

Braggart THE VICTOR IN HANDICAP.

Rapid Water Wins for Hildreth—Big Crowd Sees Racing at Oakland.

Oakland, Cal., April 6.—Fifteen thousand spectators witnessed the running off of a splendid card of six races, including two handicaps today. Weather conditions were ideal and the track was lightning fast. Outsiders and second choices accounted for two-thirds of the program winning four races right off the reel. The closing two numbers were taken by heavily backed favorites.

Braggart, winner of the stake Saturday, easily disposed of a fast lot of youngsters in the handicap at four and a half furlongs, third on the card. Boas, Adena and Rhinestone had scant chance with their respective riders.

In the handicap at one mile and a sixteenth that followed, Sam Hildreth's Rapid Water regained his speed suddenly and experienced little difficulty in disposing of the others.

Vox Populi, a singularly difficult horse to ride, had but only a remote chance of success under W. Kelly's handling. He also met with interference. Starter Holtman's work in the fifth and sixth races was faulty, but the results were only affected in the former event.

Roy Offutt's stable of thirteen racers from Ascot Park, including Sanfara and Bribery, arrived here this morning. C. Ross, an important jockey acquisition came along. W. Dugan is ill from persistent reducing and may have to retire from the saddle.

It is said that E. J. Baldwin's efforts to interest Rudolph Spreckels in his proposed racetrack at Arcadia has failed. The aged horseman is now seeking to enlist Thomas H. Williams' aid in the scheme.

W. B. Jennings is holding daily weeding out sales. He disposed of Canardo and Furze today. George Baldwin is expected tomorrow from Los Angeles. The horses J. C. Clem and Little Gregg got in yesterday. Jockeys T. Sullivan and W. Kelly were reinstated last night.

Rudolph Spreckels' crack long distance performer Borghesi, has been retired for the season and his eastern stake engagements have been cancelled. The same applies to Dr. Leggo, which broke down recently.

With the continuance of good weather and a fast track in prospect, a good program is offered for Monday and Husky, Gin Hee, Raleigh; Merchant, Blanche C., Tetanus; F. Neugent, Como, Johnny Lyons; Sir Brillar, The Mist, Gateway; Edith James, Dutiful, Pal; Confederate, Bedford and Dorado being among the horses entered, an afternoon of good racing seems to be assured. H. Forsland.

HORSEMEN HAVE FUN AT MEMPHIS.

Weather Cold But the Racing Full of Interest—The Gamblers Stay Away.

Memphis, Tenn., April 6.—It was cold and raw today, yet there were about 1,000 persons out to see the races for silver cups at Montgomery Park. The attendance was made up of horsemen and citizens who enjoy racing for the sake of the sport. There were no gamblers among them. The fact that bookmaking was prohibited kept the gamblers away. The racing was full of interest for those who did go and they enjoyed themselves immensely. John W. Schorr did the starting and M. N. Macfarlan was the presiding judge, with C. R. Ellison and Jack Cary as his associates. J. J. Marion acted as the clerk of the course. The summaries:

First race, three furlongs, two-year-old fillies for a silver cup.—Bewitched (Shilling), won; Etta Louise (Frazier), second; Elvira M. (Nicob), third. Time, 37. Pearl M., Anna Johnson, Della, Vilhalla, Brusque and Merry Touch also ran.

Second race, short course, steeplechase, for a silver cup.—Peter Becker (Gormley), won; Etta Mayence, second; Rain or Shine and D. G. Taylor threw their jockeys at the second jump. Time, 1:51.

Third race, three furlongs, two-year-old colts and geldings, for a silver cup.—Erebus (D. Riley), won; C. H. Shilling (Shilling), second; Colonel Favardale, third. Time, 38. J. Kneal, Calvin, Hexenmeister, Clall Turney and Tamme also ran.

Fourth race, one mile, gentlemen riders for a silver cup.—Sambo (Mr. McCullough), won; Back Number (Mr. Jeffries), second; Lady North, third. Time, 1:48.

Fifth race, three-quarters of a mile, three-year-olds for a silver cup.—Chancellor (Shilling), won; Redrice (Lloyd), second; Impertinence (Connolly), third. Time, 1:15. Charlie Thompson, Good and Retort also ran. Retort ran away two miles on a false break before the race.

Sixth race, one mile, for mules any age for a silver cup.—Australia (Mr. Jeffries), won; Temu Brew (Mr. Cummings), second; America (D. Riley), third. Twinkle-Twinkle and Schlitz also ran.

MEETING FOR AMATEURS AT LINDEN.

Louis Batjen, well known in amateur racing circles of the east, has planned a novel one-day meeting of amateur sport to be held at the Linden racetrack, Elizabeth, N. J., Saturday, April 20. The object of the meeting is to give an opportunity for an early trial of horses which are to be candidates for prizes offered by the various hunt meetings later in the season, and at the same time provide an afternoon of racing for those interested in hunting and amateur steeplechasing. No purses will be given, but the winner in each event will receive a trophy, which is dearer to the heart of the amateur than a money prize.

There will be no charge to witness the racing and amateurs will do the riding. There will be five races, including a flat race for hunters or hacks; a flat race for ponies or galloways, and three steeplechases. One of the steeplechases will be open to thoroughbreds that have been hunted. This will be the first amateur meeting of the season and should have the support of all who take any interest in this form of sport.

ARCITE WORKS AN IMPRESSIVE MILE.

Trainer Coyne Makes Strong Claims for Him—Gossip About Derby Candidates.

Louisville, Ky., April 6.—Arcite worked a mile at Churchill Downs this morning in 1:45. Horsemen hereabouts say that he is the best three-year-old that has been seen at the Downs since Ben Brush won the Kentucky Derby in 1896. Trainer Coyne said of him today: "Arcite is a much better three-year-old than was Sir Huon. He is a better doer and can run faster than any horse I have ever trained. I think he will about win all the three-year-old stakes we go after. There is nothing in the east that we are afraid of."

These good opinions of Mr. Long's candidate, however, do not argue that the Kentucky Derby is to be a gift to the master of Bashford Manor one month from today. There is Jack Atkin that is to be reckoned with. Barney Schreiber contended all last year that he was a much better horse than Horace E. He had shown him more as a yearling and in every way had impressed the big Missourian of his superiority. That he still has faith in him is evidenced by the fact that he has saved him out of winter racing for this much coveted prize and other rich stakes. Many of the horsemen who raced at Oakland, where Jack Atkin has been since early February, are here and while the appearance of Arcite pleases them they will have to be shown more than this mile in 1:45, as good as it was, to be convinced that Jack Atkin is not the master of the son of Alcescott.

Zal has been going great guns for trainer McDaniel at Nashville and he will have the backing of the Tennessee delegation almost to a man, unless Tom Hayes' Redgauntlet should show improvement over his Hot Springs form. Zal worked a mile in 1:42½ at Cumberland Park a few days ago and did it in a manner that tickled owner Gerst. His long rest did the son of First Mate a great deal of good. Tom Hayes has another eligible in Binondo, but it is not likely that he will start. It has already been told that Colonel Applegate has made up his mind to ship Wool Sandals on from San Francisco to run for the Derby. If Holdfast continues to improve his work at Lexington there is no doubt about his being a starter. Ovelando and Orlandwick are also in training at Lexington. Good reports are heard of the latter. Fleming, the big gelding in the string of W. J. Young, has just arrived at Lexington from Hot Springs. He is a maiden, but it would be a mistake to leave him out of Derby calculations. Barring an accident, Lens will carry the colors of Pat Dunne in the big race May 6. There seems to be a popular notion that Lens has no fancy for a mile and a quarter, but Mr. Dunne differs with this opinion. Hal Woodford has not lost faith in Pink Star and he is almost certain to be a starter. There are some rumors about Prince Frankfort's having done good work, but nothing positive is known about this horse. He is entered in the name of C. Straus & Co., but it is said that John E. Madden has more than a half interest in him. He has never started and is now understood to be in training near Lexington. It is not expected that any of the others will start.

ROUGH RIDING.

"It is with sincere pleasure one notes the Benning meeting starting the metropolitan racing season with an open eye for rough riding of leading jockeys. There is nothing more urgently needed along the line of reform in metropolitan racing," says Sports of the Times.

"Whatever the reason, the cause, the excuse, last year (and the preceding year), the rough riding permitted with a scandal and a racing crime, with apparently little official effort made, either year, until the last few weeks precipitated an appearance of activity, too late to be of any good.

"There is not a publication in the metropolis which has not, time and again, stated that action should be taken against certain leading boys, who apparently considered themselves immune by reason of their important association. As an endorsement of the opinion of the press, and of the unspoken voice of the racing public, these erring jockeys were speedily found in error for rough riding on the winter tracks, and promptly disciplined.

"This, however, had little effect upon them on their return to their zone of metropolitan immunity. Last spring, in 1906, leading boys did work which should surely have been visited with a red hot reprimand, or even stronger action, but no such action was forthcoming. The consequences are fresh in the minds of most observant racing people, and the course lasted through the season.

"This year, after being shaken up at the western tracks, where the officials wondered if that was a sample of his behavior on metropolitan courses, our leading jockey (as regards his number of winning mounts, but certainly not as regards horsemanship) speedily tried his old tactics. He did not figure, however, upon the presence of the chairman of the Jockey Club in the stewards' stand, and it must have come as an awfully cold douche of the coldest kind of cold water when the said jockey was promptly disqualified, and suspended, for one week.

"This has struck the keynote for 1907. It remains to be seen what the official orchestra will do as regards living up to the tone set by the chairman of the Jockey Club, and also what notice he may take of any dereliction from the obvious course he has publicly laid for the stewards to travel.

"It was a public, and a characteristically virile object lesson."

Herculoid, the steeplechaser, has been shipped from Pelham Farm in Virginia, to Bound Brook Farm in New Jersey, to be prepared for his engagements under the colors of E. K. Thomas.

EASY FOR LANCASTRIAN.

ELLISON'S COLT WINS THE LYRIC HANDICAP IN A CANTER.

Old Gould Steps in a Hole, Breaks a Leg and Is Destroyed—More Talk of a Holding Company.

New Orleans, La., April 6.—The Lyric Handicap, for three-year-olds and over at one mile and a half, the feature race of the card at City Park this afternoon, proved little more than an exercise canter for C. R. Ellison's Kingston colt Lancastrian. There were only four starters, with Lancastrian and James Reddick coupled as the Ellison entry. The result was never in doubt after the first half mile had been run, for Lancastrian had rushed to the front and was cantering along under stiff restraint with a lead of six lengths. The contest for second money was a stiff one between the other three. They bunched up when entering the homestretch and all were under a furious drive from the head of the homestretch to the finish. Alma Dufour proved the gamest of the trio and beat James Reddick out a neck with the latter just managing to last long enough to finish a head in front of Harry Stephens. The stake had a gross value of $1,480, the winner's portion of which was $1,130.

The steeplechase over the full course was marred by a fatal accident. Gould stepped into a hole while racing on the flat and snapped off one of his forelegs just below the knee. He was destroyed immediately. Gould was thirteen years old, one of the oldest horses in training. In the days of outlaw racing in Maryland he was rated as one of the fastest horses at Iron Hill.

After the running of the stake Walter O'Connor bought James Reddick from C. R. Ellison. The horse will be rested up and raced on the Canadian circuit next summer.

Louis and Charlie Cella left for their homes in St. Louis last night. The much talked of holding company for City Park and the Fair Grounds is as yet a mythical proposition. There are several angles yet to be straightened out before such a scheme can be put through. If the holding company is not formed it is said that at all events there will be some agreement reached between the two clubs which will insure the same set of officials acting at both tracks. This means that several of the present incumbents will not be retained next winter.

The usual program of seven races is provided for Monday and, with Gargantua, McAllister, Fieldwick; Esterjoy, Subador, Molo B.; Parisian Model, E. M. Fry, Whisk Broom; John L. Inglis, Peter Sterling, Donna; Warner Griswell, Goddess, Quagga; Envoy, Flavigny, Grenade; Spider Web, Sagapanak and Solly M. showing in the entries, the racing should be up to the track's standard.

WASHINGTON'S MEETING.

Another week of the spring meeting of the Washington Jockey Club remains to be disposed of and then the always eagerly awaited opening of the New York campaign follows at Aqueduct. There is no doubt that the meeting at Washington has been remarkably successful in every respect, except in the racing itself. That has not been bad. It has been as good as could reasonably be expected in view of the average low class of the horses in daily action. But it has not been as good as it should be. That more good horses do not run at the Washington meetings is due solely to the somewhat narrow policy of the management in not offering sufficient money to induce their presence. Next week many of the real stars of the track will be seen in action at Aqueduct. They might as well be running at Washington this week and would be if stakes befitting the dignity and importance of the national capital had been provided. With Baltimore in easy proximity the Washington Jockey Club has approximately a million people to draw upon for patronage and human nature being on pretty nearly the same level everywhere there is no reason to doubt that the institution of two or three really great stakes would draw tremendously. A big thing appeals strongly to the American man and a big thing in the way of a rich stake at Washington is badly needed. Mr. Crickmore is amply qualified to devise the conditions and the big stables would almost surely respond to the pleasant luring of an adequate provision of dollars. It is up to the management to attend to the latter detail. In the long run results would not fail to prove profitable as well as pleasing.

WESTMINSTER HANDICAP OPEN.

The Brooklyn Jockey Club has announced the Westminster Handicap to close for entries Monday, April 22. As was the case last year, when it was won by Go Between, it is a dash of a mile and a quarter and of the guaranteed value of $10,000. It is practically a renewal of the Brooklyn Handicap and will receive the nominations of all the crack handicap horses of the time.

Okenite will not start in the Second Benning Spring Handicap next Saturday. Trainer Whalen has decided that the Carter Handicap at Aqueduct a week from tomorrow is the race for him.

Word comes from New York that Brookdale, Nymph was never better than she is right now and she may be expected to carry the colors of Harry, Payne Whitney in the Carter Handicap.

BAD OUTLOOK FOR SMALL COURSES.

England Is Suffering a Stringency That Will Hurt Some of the Little Tracks.

"England is undoubtedly suffering from a plethora of racing, and racecourse proprietors are feeling the pinch in consequence," writes a correspondent from London to the Canadian Sportsman. "This has more than ever been demonstrated by the recent efforts of promoters to increase their revenue by putting up the admission charges to enclosures, etc. In face of these increases it is a well known fact that Tattersall's ring—the principal betting enclosure at all recognized meetings here—has of late been patronized less and less. The reason is easy to find. Tattersall's costs usually a guinea a day, whereas a backer can go into the 'silver ring' at a quarter of the cost. The public, seeking to reduce expenses, are transferring their patronage to the cheaper rings, and as a natural consequence the bookmakers follow suit.

"It is not only the actual cost of admission which falls so heavily on the racing man, but whichever way he turns when out racing he finds himself plucked. To commence, the railway companies, incomprehensible though it may seem, act on the good old buccannery principle of trebling fares to race-meetings, and make no effort to protect their high-fare-paying passenger from the horde of 'sharks' who follow the meetings and infest the railway carriages with their 'three-card-trick' and pocket-picking proclivities. Most courses are a mile or two from a railway station, and here again he must meekly submit to the extortion of the fly-driver or take 'shanks' pony. At Ascot, for instance, as much as 15s is exacted for a corner in a miserable, broken-down, germ-infected fly to ride to the course, and you must chance what you may be bled for on the return journey. On arriving at the racecourse gates, unless it be one of the fast-disappearing free courses, another 2s 6d is necessary to gain admittance. If one is desirous of going into Tattersall's ring, a guinea is the charge, and for the luxury of looking over the horses in the paddock another half sovereign is demanded. Added to this, the racegoer has the doubtful privilege of paying 50 per cent. more for his refreshments than their face value.

"Ten years or so ago racing was booming, and there was plenty of money about. Racecourse companies were paying enormous dividends, stakes went up to lavish proportions, and the racegoer's expenses increased in a like measure, but it was a term of prosperity and nobody counted the cost. Time changed all things, and the sport is now well on the ebb tide, and all are at their wits' ends to reduce expenses. The Jockey Club will not sanction the reduction of stake values, so promoters have sought to squeeze the racegoer. Already smarting under unlawful taxation, he has absolutely refused to be made the victim, and the promoter is metaphorically between the devil and the deep sea.

"Racehorse owning in England is a rich man's sport; those who make their studs pay their way are the exception to the rule; the wealthy old patrons of the game are fast dying out, and their loss is keenly felt. Owing to the suppression of street betting, an enormous revenue has been denied the sport, as much of the money staked on the street permeated through the racecourse and its immediate followers. The outlook is a bad one for the smaller courses, and in all probability we shall see some of them closing down in the near future."

 Winner—Ch. c. by Isidor—Roxane (trained by E. J. Hoffman).
 Went to post at 3:57. At post 3 minutes. Start good for all but 1 Am Trying. Won easily; second the same; third driving. Cobleskill showed suddenly acquired speed, ran into the lead quickly and setting a fast pace throughout won going away. Pins and Needles got into forward contention early and finished a fast going second. Grumbing Soph got away badly and overcoming much interference finished with a rush. Millstone only ran fairly well and can do better. Canvas showed speed but failed to stay. Lucy Strome ran well to the stretch and quit badly.

 Winner—Br. m. by Ardington—Merry Antoinette (trained by P. Price).
 Went to post at 4:23. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won all out; place pulling up. Ardette fenced well but won on sufferance and the race was farce. Essex II. was so much the best that he had to be pulled all through the race and at the end he almost beat out his stablemate despite Taylor's efforts. Ordeessu went fairly well but was all out at the finish.

 Winner—Ch. f. by Holstein—Utilitas (trained by W. Garth).
 Went to post at 4:54. At post 1 minute. Start good for all but Maytime. Won driving; second the same; third easily. Lady Isabel was shut off on the far turn but soon got in close pursuit of the leaders and after a long stretch drive was drawing out at the end. Queen's Souvenir showed the most early speed and hung on gamely in the closing drive. Blember was a close contender to the stretch but tired badly in the final drive. Senator Barrett and Maytime both raced very green and Maytime was off very badly.

 Went to post at 5:22. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Banker came out fresh and after rating to the head of the stretch came away with a rush and won in a center. Water Dog was speedy but was much used making the pace and was tiring badly at the end and barely lasted long enough to save second place. Betsy Binford was always close up and finished gamely. Blue Buck showed a good turn of speed but tired as if a trifle short. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

 Winner—Ch. h. by Father Confessor—Koffee (trained by J. W. Blalock).
 Went to post at 1:40. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Confessor was reserved hard held close behind the pacemaker and finishing fast wore him down eventually and scored a lucky win. Pal made the running under a pull to the final sixteenth, where his jockey put up an awkward ride and threw away a certain victory. Eduardo ran in forward pursuit of the leaders throughout and finished a game third. Elevation, away poorly, closed a big gap early but tired at the end. Christine A., away poorly and impeded early, made up much ground in the middle half but quit and swerved in the stretch. Bird of Passage showed early speed and held on well for seven furlongs, probably short. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.
 Scratched—(67610) Lucian, 107; 68069 Corrigan, 110.

 Winner—B. c. by Altam—Tallunda (trained by T. E. McLaughlin).
 Went to post at 2:08. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Talamund made the running throughout was waited with in front under a pull for the first mile and crew away when called upon in the stretch. Briers maintained close pursuit of the winner throughout but failed to get up under a weak finish. Benvolio ran forwardly all the way and put up a game stretch effort. Infamable was a forward contender for a mile and an eighth and quit unexpectedly at the end. Iras trailed for six furlongs, then moved up on the far turn and finished gamely through the last furlong. W. B. Gates was well up for a mile. Ink has probably trained off. It was too fast for Benvolio. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

 Winner—Ch. g. by Boamers—Gelida (trained by C. J. Casey).
 Went to post at 2:35. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won easily. Second and third driving. Braggart outbroke, outpaced and outstayed the others decisively. Boas broke slowly and being inadequately handled could never get up but made a game effort. Harvel got away badly and ran quickly up into prominent contention, but tired in the closing drive. Adena, nearly left, closed a big gap. Rhinestone suffered at the start and made up much ground under a bad ride. College Widow, shuffled to the rear at the start, was never dangerous, but finished gaining. Tillinghast, away flatfooted and repeatedly shut off, showed a flash of early speed but tired at the end and can do better.
 Scratched—68027 Raleigh, 104.

681125 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. (1:45-1-108.) $1,000. All Ages. Handicap. Net value to winner $800.

 Winner—B. h. by Rapallo—Water Girl (trained by S. C. Hildreth).
 Went to post at 2:56. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Rapid Water improved suddenly and after being reserved in a good forward position in the early running drew out when straightened for home and won going away with a rush. Ruby outbroke the others and quickly established a good lead and made the running to the last turn, where she was challenged by the winner and succumbed, but held on gamely for second place. Vox Populi was crowded at the start and forced to pull up repeatedly, came fast when clear and finished a fast going third. Pontotoc was outclassed here, but finished well. Supreme Court ran prominently for seven furlongs and then quit. Martinmas dropped out early and ran a bad race.
 Scratched—68068 Edwin Gun, 114; 67872 Beechwood, 93.

681126 FIFTH RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. (1:05-1-100.) $500. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $400.
